It's Bazaar

The end of November at St. James' is a pretty hectic and exciting time. Between our annual Harvest Bazaar and the Thanksgiving holiday, there is not much time for getting the newsletter together, especially because we do a double December/January edition. So I am writing this the Tuesday of Bazaar week, not least of all because, in the words of our bishop, I am stoked about what is going on. ("Stoked" means genuinely excited and energized. I am given to understand it is a surfer thing. But I digress.) I spent a good chunk of yesterday morning having some quality time with some green onions and a lovely group of workers getting ready for the luncheon Thursday. The church building is being transformed. We had a wonderful time searching for the mailboxes (found them in the crib room of the nursery). My office is full of furniture and boxes. And it is fantastic. I am more excited by Bazaar this year than I have been before.

I don't know why. My first Bazaar, I didn't know what to expect, exactly. I was delightfully surprised at how it went. The next year I had an idea of what was coming, but I feared the first year may have been an outlier, not really indicative of what Bazaar is. Nope. Second year was better than the first. So now I am really looking forward to my third Bazaar. Erica and I have made things for the freezer pantry and I am planning on spending time tomorrow baking cakes for the bake sale and cut desserts. I love how the folks at St. James' come together for this event. I love being in a parish that enjoys working hard together for a good cause. Actually, many good causes. We are able to give some real financial help to many worthy projects because of the Bazaar.

After two and a half years here at St. James', the bloom has not fallen off the rose. Either y'all have incredible self-control, or you are genuinely good people. I'm pretty sure it is the latter. And I give thanks to God for what we are able to do here. And the best part is that we are willing (and starting) to do even more. Plans for the foster families' Christmas party are progressing. That is coming up on December 8. There is so much need in our lost and broken world that it can be overwhelming. Where do we even start? Well, we are starting with a party. And it is my desire and prayer that God will bless this endeavor as the beginning of even more outreach opportunities.

There is no "one-size-fits-all" answer to how to have a growing and vibrant church, but one common characteristic of such churches is that they do stuff. They are involved in their community. That is what I want for St. James', and we seem to be headed in the right direction. St. James' and her members have long been a positive source for good in Greenville. I am proud to be part of that legacy. And with God's help, we will continue to fulfill our baptismal covenant commitment to "proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ"; to "seek and serve Christ in all persons"; and to "strive for justice and peace among all people." (BCP 305)

Thank you for all you do. May God continue to bless and keep us.

Peace,

Fr. Brandt+

Foster Care Christmas Party

On Thursday, Dec. 8, St. James will be hosting a Christmas party for the children in foster care in Washington County. This celebration will also include the resource parents and staff at the Washington County DHS-Family and Children Services division who care for and represent these children while they are in state custody. The party will be held in our parish hall and will begin at 5:30 pm.

We have lots planned for this special group of people in our community. We will begin the night by welcoming the children, families and staff members into the church for a fun-filled evening. We will serve a Christmas meal, offer age appropriate craft activities, decorate Christmas cookies, enjoy hot chocolate and sing Christmas carols. We even have word that jolly 'ole Saint Nick will be paying the children a visit! We will end the night with more Christmas caroling and spreading warm Christmas cheer. Our hope is to not only provide a festive, Christmas environment for the children, but to also show support and appreciation to our county resource parents and DHS staff members and social workers.

We are expecting a full house for the Christmas party and there is much excitement within our church family. If you would like to volunteer for this new program, please contact Emily Pieralisi at 822-2907 or at esandidge@hotmail.com.

Christmas Memorial Flowers

The Christmas memorial name list will be on the volunteer desk beginning December 1. If you would like to remember your loved ones with a poinsettia in the church please check the list and follow the instructions. The minimum donation is $20.00. Deadline for names is December 21.

Christmas at St. James

Dec. 8, 5:30 P.M., DHS Christmas Party

Dec. 18, 11:30 A.M., Greening of the Church

Dec. 18, 5:00 P.M., Living Nativity

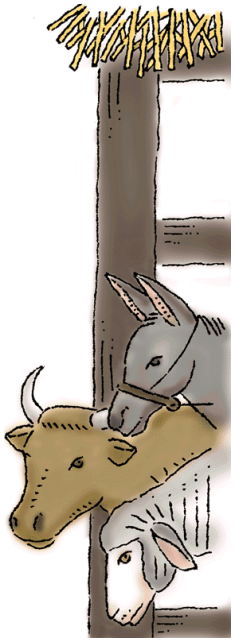
Dec. 24, 5:30 P.M., Christmas Festival Eucharist with Children's Creché Procession

Dec. 25, 10:30 A.M., H. E. Rite II (come as you are)

Children's Creche Procession on Christmas Eve

Our children are back this year with the children's crèche presentation on Christmas Eve. Just like last year, the children will bring in the crèche in a dramatic procession, led by the crucifer and the celebrant.

All children age three and up will process in carrying a figure from the crèche. An acolyte will place the figure in the manger scene. All children are welcome to participate, even grandchildren and/or nieces and nephews who are visiting from out of town. The more kids the better.



The Living Nativity is set for Dec. 18 at 5pm. Drive by the church and enjoy this long standing tradition of the St. James youth as they bring the nativity of our Lord to life for our community.

The 2016 St. James Bazaar was a huge success thanks to all the parishioners who were able to participate! Thanks to all of the people who helped with the set up (fortified by Little Caesar's pizza). We sold more than 600 luncheon tickets this year! The publicity in the newspaper was great. Thanks to our greeter who served the special hot cider and coffee. Talented women and men decorated the sanctuary and the altar. The presentation was breathtaking again! Thanks to Anita and Jim Martin for the decorations in the Parish Hall. All the bakers and cooks who prepared delicious donations of various food, cakes, pies, jellies and candies for the freezer/pantry, cake sales and desserts for the luncheon. There was lots of hard work behind the scenes getting donations for the St. James Room and the Silent Auction. Again, Jill and Russell Flowers gave a generous donation of the St. Louis Cardinals baseball package for our raffle. Several people were involved in selling the raffle tickets and did a fantastic job this year. The luncheon cooks have their talents down to a science. Special thanks to the Nimrods who prepared the rice for the luncheon in the Sherman's kitchen. Thanks to all the waiters, waitresses and the coffee and water folks. Adding to the festive occasion was the music of a five piece combo that Hal Holbrook put together. The take-out crew handled about HALF of the luncheon tickets sold. And last but certainly NOT LEAST, thanks to the dishwashing crew and all the people who stayed after to clean up and restore the church back to normal. We truly appreciate Betsy and Denise for all of their help in the office and special thanks to our sexton, Veronica.

THANKS TO ALL OF THE ST. JAMES FAMILY FOR ALL OF YOUR HARD WORK AND SUPPORT.

DIOCESAN NEWS:

Knitting and Needlework in Advent: December 2-4, 2016

The Gray Center invites you to join us for a weekend of knitting, needlework, reflection, and prayer. This year's retreat will again be led by Susan Nix with the Rev. Jennifer Deaton serving as Chaplain.

Registration will begin at 4:00pm on Friday, December 2, 2016. You may check in at the Gray Center lobby. The retreat will commence Friday evening beginning with supper at 6:00pm. The retreat will conclude on Sunday, December 4, 2016 before noon.

The cost to attend is $220/person for single occupancy or $190/person for double occupancy. Fee includes supper Friday, 3 meals Saturday, and breakfast on Sunday. Space is limited. If you choose the double occupancy option, please include the name of your requested roommate and have them do the same when they register.

The Saturday Only option includes retreat time from 9am-5pm and includes lunch.

Go to Dioms.org, click on communication and then events for more information and to register.

Winter Solstice
Tue, Dec 27 until Sun, Jan 01

Winter Solstice is a continuation of the summer camp experience for High School youth. It begins on December 27th and runs through the morning of January 1st, helping to provide a safe and fun place to enjoy New Year's Eve.

Every year the staff of Winter Solstice develops a theme for the session, hoping to help campers wrestle with the difficult questions of faith, identity, and God.

The directors of Winter Solstice are Rev. Jennifer Southall and Mr. William Boyles.

For more information, please contact Jason Ezell at 601-59-1556.

To register, go to this link: http://graycenter.dioms.org/Camp%20Bratton-Green/Winter-Solstice.html

Deadline for the February newsletter is January 24.

Dear St. James,

I have always loved Thanksgiving and the holidays because I feel they bring out the best in people..... But I found that the St. James family has that spirit any time you need it! When we needed your constant prayers y'all were praying for our family and Johnny. When we needed assistance y'all set up a fund for Johnny. We will never know the names of those that donated to the fund but we are forever grateful for your kindness!!! And when we brought Johnny home to rest, y'all were here for our family wrapping your loving arms around us and continuing to keep us in your prayers. Thank you for your love and support!

Marla, John (JP) and Thomas
