A Quiet Summer? Nope.

Summer is upon us. The Day School has finished up for the year. Betsy and I always talk about how things will quiet down now, but they really don't. There is always something going on at St. James'.

Coming up June 5 we have the Feast of Pentecost. This is when we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit upon the apostles and the disciples. Many folks see it as the birthday of the Church. We will have one service that Sunday at 10:30 followed by a pot-luck lunch in the parish hall. It has been a while since we've had a good ol' fashioned pot-luck, and I am really looking forward to it.

This summer will also see some major renovations to the day school. They will be installing new windows and air conditioning system as well as updating the bathrooms and adding some new playground equipment. These are being paid for with a federal grant for early childhood centers that our director, Ginny Cochran, applied for and got.

June 19th we will be having a joint service with Trinity Methodist and First Presbyterian. This will take place at Trinity Methodist at 10:30 on that day. There will be no services at St. James' that day. I hope that you will make plans to attend this special ecumenical event. We will be hosting a similar service in July, and we will be at First Presbyterian in August.

The Day School rummage sale is set for July. Like last year, we will have a special parish preview day before the public preview party and general sale. Tickets will be available in July.

As I look around St. James', I am so proud of what we have been able to do here. The buildings and grounds are looking great. Our ministries like Annis' Children are making real differences in people's lives. We continue to offer educational opportunities with our Wednesday Bible studies and Sunday School (which will continue during the summer months), and I am looking forward to a return of our children's Sunday school program in the fall.

Summer really isn't that quiet after all. There is always something going on at St. James'.

Peace,

Fr. Brandt+

THE CHURCH
SPRUCED UP

If you have not been in the church lately, you are in for a surprise. We have been sprucing up for a couple of months now. There is fresh paint everywhere and new doors are being made and hung now. We have new flooring in the parish hall, main hallways, and rooms off the parish hall. While this flooring is quite durable, we ask that you not drag furniture over the floor if you are moving something.
