Rummage Sale

July is coming up (or here, depending upon when you read this), and that means it is Rummage Sale time. The annual rummage sale for the Day School has had a significant impact on the school. Playground equipment upgrades, teacher bonuses, and other items are made possible by the money raised with the rummage sale.

The Day School is a ministry of the parish that largely pays for itself. It is not a separate entity. The rummage sale is one of the main ways that the day school is able to do so much for the children entrusted to its care.

The greatest benefit for the parish that I see from the rummage sale is similar to other ministries at St. James' like Bazaar and the Annis' Children Christmas party: It brings folks in the parish together to do something for others. The rummage sale is a huge undertaking, and it only happens because of a lot of hard work. From emptying the storage containers, to sorting and pricing, to the actual sale days, it takes many hands to make the work happen.

The members of the St. James' parish family can be proud of the impact they are making in our community and beyond with our ministries. Thanks to the hard work and dedication of members and friends, St. James' is making a difference. And we are doing it in the Name of Christ. Every time we help an individual or family or group, we are spreading the Good News of God in Christ. We are making manifest God's love in God's world. We are being the hands and feet of Christ. We are being the Church.

I am both proud and humbled to be the rector of St. James'. It is an honor and privilege to serve as your priest, and I give thanks to God for the opportunity to serve here.

Peace,

Fr. Brandt+
